Two of the most famous fighters of World War II are now available for you to fly in Flight Simulator X and FS2004.

In fact with two different versions of the Spitfire being included alongside the Hawker Tempest V you are really getting three different aircraft. The Spitfire Mk VB model is a representation of an aircraft from 401 'Canadian' Squadron from May 1942; the Spitfire Mk VB Tropical model is of a 249 Squadron aircraft based at Takali (Malta), March 1943, and the Tempest Mk V is one from 3 Squadron based at Hornchurch in 1944

With a relatively small file size (19mb) and at such a low low price this is an offer that is just too good to resist. Why not see try it for yourself.
